

BEN KAZEZ baritone

SHORT BIOGRAPHY (502 CHARACTERS)

Ben Kazez studied at the Guildhall School and as a Britten Pears Young Artist. Today, he enjoys a varied career of solo and small-ensemble work. He has sung as a soloist under Masato Suzuki, William Christie, Florian Heyerick, Václav Luks, Christian Curnyn, and Lionel Meunier, and in ensembles such as the Monteverdi Choir, Netherlands Bach Society, Vox Luminis, and Ensemble Correspondances. As a recitalist he performs repertoire from chant to Langlais with Dutch Music Prize winner Laurens de Man.

